Chevy Chase Star Golfer Expected to Win Annual Tournament by His Good Work.

MEETS McCAMMON TODAY

Brown and Small Have Admirers When It Comes to Picking Ultimate Winner.

Walter Tuckerman, who turned in a card of 73 in the qualifying round of the annual Chevy Chase tournament, started out today on the first round attended by a large gallery, which expected him to keep up his fine performance. Tuckerman is the favorite with the onlookers. However, C. E. Brown, of St. Andrews, and George Small, of Baltimore, both of whom went around in 80 yesterday, are being followed intently. Orman, McCammon, of Chevy Chase, went out with Tuckerman this morning, but he is not expected to give his opponent much of a struggle.

Today's drawings follow:

Impersonating Women Is Costly for the Athletes

CHICAGO, May 15.—Take it from Coach A. A. Stagg, of Chicago University, there will be no effeminate athletes on the Maroon teams. Just because "Pete" Russell, famous quarterback, dressed in several yards of silk chiffon, and participated in a classic dance, and Stella Windrop, another football player, weight 230, impersonated the fairy queen in "The Student Superior," a comic opera presented recently by the Black Friars, the veteran coach had their names erased from the athletic rolls.

Stagg deplored the time that theatricals took from athletics, besides contending that "No red-blooded man could don woman's duds."

They could be smaller but not better.

The Second Cook says in the Cleveland Plain Dealer—"Speaking of the army of the unemployed, why not include the Washington outfielders when Walter Johnson is pitching?"

Ah! But Cookie, old bird, them were the good old days.

Now, when W. J. goes through all the motions of pitching, our outfielders are as busy as a one-armed paper-hanger with a stem winding watch.

Demaree Trims Pirates.

PITTSBURGH, May 15.—"Steamer Al" Demaree, the cartoonist-twirler, defeated the Pirates yesterday, though they touched him up for ten hits. He was invincible in the pinches, while the Giants jumped on Adams at the right time.

The score—

Giants..... 300 010 000—4 5 2
Pirates..... 001 200 003—3 10 2

Batteries—Giants, Demaree and Meyers; Pirates, Adams and Gibson.

Phillies, 5 to 3.

ST. LOUIS, May 15.—Trying the game in the ninth, the Phillies grabbed a 6-to-0 victory in the fourteenth inning yesterday. The score:

Phillies..... 000 000 102 000 02—3 10 5
Cardinals..... 000 001 000 000 00—3 9 1

Batteries—Phillies: Mayer, Oeschger, Alexander, and Kilfer; Peritt, Robinson, and Snyder.

DIAMOND ECHOES

Tough luck for Jim Scott.

"Tiny" Vaughn gave the Robins one hit yesterday.

Three 1-to-0 scores in the American League, and we had one.

Those Naps forced the champions to travel at top speed before grabbing a one-run victory.

Doc Ayers pitched the best game he has shown this season, and gave his friends much encouragement.

The Junglers waited a long time for their run, but they leaped upon the Yanks when the right time came and drove three across.

"Dutch" Leonard is one of the most dependable southpaws in the big leagues this season. The Red Sox youngster let the Browns down yesterday with four hits.

If the Naps keep up the pace they have shown for two days thus far, they are likely to reverse all opinions concerning their strength. They are producing the goods.

Chicago fans are knocking Hank O'Day for keeping Bill Sweeney at second for the Cubs. The former Boston captain has slowed up wonderfully, and is not hitting a little bit.

The old jinx proved too much for the Pirates, the Giants coping the first game of their series yesterday. The Giants have always been able to trim the Pirates in St. Louis, though losing to them on the Polo Grounds.

Wilson Collins, the young Vanderbilt University star, sought by Clark Griffith in vain, grabbed off two singles for the Boston Braves against the Reds yesterday. However, his hitting has been very light all season.

Hank Shanks, Monaca Marvel, owned the town last night, following that terrific bingle of his in the tenth frame yesterday. Have you noticed his good walloping the last couple of weeks? The boy is beginning to come into his own, and may develop into a sweet cluster before the season ends.

Billy Murray Says He Will Put McCoy Away

NEW YORK, May 15.—Feeling that the middleweight championship is within his grasp, Billy Murray, the youngster from the Pacific Coast, is working overtime for his match with Al McCoy at the Stadium Athletic Club on next Thursday night. Murray is in perfect condition, and could step into the ring tonight ready for the fray. He will enter the ring weighing about 152 pounds, or perhaps a little lighter.

He is one of the most confident men who ever prepared for a championship battle. Not only does he expect to win, but predicts when pressed that the battle will never last the ten rounds. He declared that if he could stop the veteran Leo Houck and hold Jimmy Claboy to a draw, he didn't intend to allow his reputation to suffer at the hands of a man of McCoy's caliber.

Denies Transfer.

CHICAGO, May 15.—There's no truth in the rumor that the Federal League will transfer the Kansas City club to Cincinnati and the Pittsburgh club to New York," said Jimmy Gilmore, head of the outlaws, here today.

Diamond Briefs.

Putting the full name of a town on baseball uniforms is an almost obsolete custom. A thousand years from now some archaeologist will dig up a lot of old suits decorated with terrapins, cubes, fleur de lys, monograms or other insignia and wonder what these strange hieroglyphics meant. This will baseball stimulate the highbrows of future aeons.

Rumor, hard worked rumor, has it that the St. Louis Feds will have a star second baseman shortly. A player from one of the big league clubs. This must be Doyle, Evers, Cuthshaw, Byrne, Viox.

Even if Roger Bresnahan doesn't get Hank O'Day's berth he oughtn't to let as long as he doesn't have to take an upper.

Joe Kelly, the young Pittsburgh outfielder, was with the White Sox two years ago and turned back to the minors. After seeing him play last Monday Callahan remarked: "We certainly overlooked a good bet in that youngster."

Groh, Sweeney, Higgins, Truesdale, Yerkes, Collins, Morgan, Lajoie, Kavanaugh, Pratt or Blackburne, at east speculation beyond that becomes mere guesswork.

$2.50

35¢ Value

If there is one satisfaction more than any other that the wearers of The "NEWARK" Shoe have, it is that no man, no matter how much he pays for shoes, has anything on his for STYLE.

For instance, those super-smart English lasts that so many young men are now wearing and paying $3.50 to $5.00 for are here at the modest price of $2.50. We illustrate two of these models herewith.

Once a man tries The NEWARK Shoe, he is so absolutely convinced that they are as good as any $3.50 shoe he ever wore, that he simply refuses ever to pay $3.50 again, or to wear any other shoe than The NEWARK.

You are really wearing $3.50 shoes when you buy The NEWARK, but you pay only $2.50 for them because you have no dealer's profit to pay. You actually "SAVE A DOLLAR."
